

MALTESE ASSOCIATION ORDER OF MALTA
2018 HOSPITALLER ACTIVITIES REPORT 2017

SAMOC Trolley Service

A trolley refreshment service at Sir Anthony Mamo Oncology Centre continues to be provided as a means of support and comfort to Our Lords the Sick undergoing radiotherapy and chemotherapy treatment at the hospital.

Prison Ministry

Volunteers and Members of the Maltese Association visit several young foreign male and female inmates on a regular basis. The aim of these visits is to help these special people regain their confidence and self-esteem to be able to integrate with society once again after discounting their prison term.

Prison Ministry Summer BBQ and Thanksgiving Supper

The traditional annual Thanksgiving Supper and Summer BBQ for all inmates at the Young Persons Offenders Unit, in Mtahleb are held in January and August respectively. We are immensely thankful to our regular volunteers who unfailingly organise and assist in all the preparations and cooking.

Visits to St Vincent de Paule Residence, Home for the Elderly

This activity is organised by a dedicated member of the Order and an equally dedicated member of FOTO, mostly for the benefit of persons who lack family and friends to visit them. Monthly visits from October to June take place at the Ruzar Briffa Section.

Pre-Lourdes Lunch for Malades

The Maltese Association organised a familiarisation lunch for Our Lords the Sick at The Radisson Blu Hotel in St Julians. This event gives the opportunity for patients and personnel to meet up and get to know each other. The patients are also briefed on the pilgrimage to Lourdes.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

The Maltese Association participated once more in the Order's International Pilgrimage to Lourdes offering a group of patients and pilgrims the opportunity of making a spiritual journey to this Marian Shrine. Two chartered flights were filled to full capacity and once again the pilgrimage was a most rewarding experience for both Our Lords the Sick and MASMOM volunteers.

Monthly Tea Parties for Lourdes Patients

The Maltese Association organises a monthly tea party for past Lourdes patients at various locations. These events lead to renewal of bonds between past Lourdes personnel and patients. This activity has become one of the most popular Hospitalier activities held throughout the year.

Ta' Pinu Pilgrimage

The annual pilgrimage to the Marian Sanctuary at Ta' Pinu, in Gozo, took place in October. Patients and elderly people from various hospitals and homes in Malta and Gozo participated in this pilgrimage. His Lordship Mgr Mario Grech celebrated Mass and later a hearty lunch was served to our special guests at Villa Fiorita, in Marsalforn.

Thanksgiving Mass at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Graces in Zabbar

A group of Our Lords the Sick, who had participated in the Order of Malta's past International Pilgrimages to Lourdes, were accompanied by members and volunteers of the Maltese Association, to a Thanksgiving Mass at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Graces in Zabbar. Fr Evan Caruana, Archpriest of Zabbar, together with Fr Savio Vella and Fr David Gauci, both Chaplains of the Maltese Association, participated in the concelebration of the well-attended church service.

International Summer Camp 2017

The Maltese contingent to Austria consisted of 19 participants, 8 of whom were our special guests. 10 helpers and one doctor and chaplain accompanied the group. The youngsters had a wonderful time!

Childrens' Christmas Party

300 children coming from economically challenged families were entertained to an afternoon full of fun, animation and games at the annual Christmas Party at the Grand Hotel Excelsior.

Family Fun Day

Another annual event well established in our calendar entertains Economically challenged families. This year 300 guests were invited to a day packed with activities at Funland in Paceville. A variety of finger food was served in abundance, whilst coffees, teas, soft drinks and biscuits were available throughout the day.

Summer BBQ at Lija Parish Church Hall

A BBQ for special families was held in the courtyard of the Lija Parish Church Hall. Food was abundant and the mood was jolly as everyone enjoyed the delicious food provided by the Plaza Hotel. Our guests listened and danced to lively music courtesy of D.J. Michael Jackson Jr.

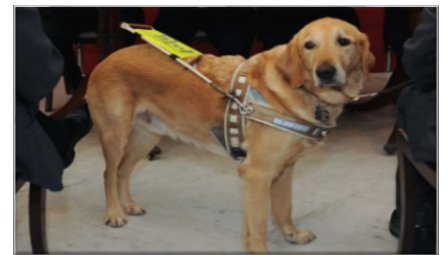

Tea Party for the Elderly at Verdala Palace.

An afternoon picnic for Elderly guests coming from various Government and Church residential homes was held in the beautiful garden grounds of Verdala Castle. Over 300 Elderly and some past Lourdes patients were also invited to this annual event. This activity started with the Holy Mass after which the guests were treated to some scrumptious food and beverages. The President H.E. Marie Louise Coleiro Preca attended the event.

Guide Dogs for the Blind

This programme is still ongoing. The Grand Magistry has been instrumental in the donation of €200,000 for the acquisition and training of guide dogs for the blind. The Maltese Association is managing this project in conjunction with the Malta Guide Dogs Foundation.

Presentation of Christmas Hampers

Every Christmas, 120 hampers packed with food and toiletries are distributed to representatives of various homes and charitable institutions.

Dar tal-Providenza Social Events

Two parties with interactive entertainment were organised for residents with special needs at the Dar tal-Providenza in Siggiewi. Food and entertainment all through the two afternoons was provided by two brilliant performers, who tried to give their best act to please the audience.

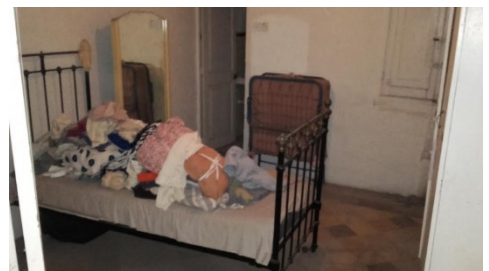

Air-conditioning Units for Dar tal-Providenza Transport Vans

Thanks to an additional grant made available by the Order of Malta’s Global Fund for Forgotten People, the Maltese Association has been able to finance the installation of air conditioning systems in the two Iveco Tail-Lift Vans which had been donated to Dar tal-Providenza last November, when the Transport Project was officially launched.

Alberto Marvelli Residence - Shelter for Homeless Youths Project

The Maltese Association together with the National Federation of Past Pupils and Friends of Don Bosco has embarked on a new project with the aim of providing temporary living quarters to three qualifying residents. Conversion works on an terraced house to be named Alberto Marvelli Residence has started, thanks to a generous grant which has been awarded to the Maltese Association for this particular Project by the Global Fund for Forgotten People and to a further equally generous grant made available by the Ministry for Family and Social Solidarity. The Shelter for Homeless Youth is scheduled to be completed within a period of one year. This will be an ongoing Hospitaller Project.

World Sight Day 2017 – Make Vision Count

A formal presentation of prescription eyeglasses to a number of immigrants took place at the Marsa Open Centre on Wednesday 27th December 2017. This presentation was the culmination of a project which was coordinated by the Maltese Association on the initiative of Class Optical, with the collaboration of the Agency for the Welfare of Asylum Seekers (AWAS).

Holy Bibles and Prayer Books for Prison Inmates at the Corradino Correctional Facility

The American Association has recently and very kindly made available to our Association a number of Holy Bibles and accompanying Prayer Books specially intended for use by prison inmates, both in English as well as in Spanish texts. These are being individually distributed to those foreign prison inmates participating in the Association’s Prison Ministry who express the wish to receive them.

Volunteers of the Order

Pizza Night

72 special guests, some wheelchair bound were treated to a Pizza/Pasta Night at il-Fortizza Restaurant in Sliema. 17 Volunteers were in attendance.

San Anton Palace Event

75 guests were entertained at an event held at San Anton Palace on the generous invitation of H.E. The President of Malta, Dr Marie Louise Coleiro Preca. Holy Mass was celebrated in the Russian Chapel followed by high tea served in the Palace gardens.

Christmas Party

A Christmas party was held at the Marsa Sports Club. A number of special guests were entertained, and Father Christmas did not fail to make an appearance to distribute gifts on this merry occasion.

Ladies' Night out

A Ladies' Night was again held at The Dolmen Hotel in Qawra. 29 special ladies were entertained to a lovely buffet dinner which was generously sponsored by the hotel management. There were 11 volunteers in attendance on the night. VOTO also covered transport costs for wheelchair users.

Gozo Outing

Another successful day outing to Gozo took place during summer. A record number of 98 special guests and their families joined 15 volunteers who were at hand to lend assistance. The group set off on 2 coaches and 2 wheelchair vans to hear mass in the lovely gardens of a private farmhouse in Gharb, celebrated by Mgr Paul Vella and Fr Jeffery Attard, after which pastizzi and cool refreshments were served. A visit to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Ta' Pinu came next. The group was then taken to Calypso Hotel in Marsalforn where a lavish buffet lunch kindly sponsored by CASUMO Services awaited.

Order of Malta Volunteers in Gozo

Transport Services for Wheelchair Cases

The Order of Malta Volunteers in Gozo continued to run its main Project of providing a special transport service for wheelchair bound cases and patients needing assistance in Gozo. Transport varied from residences to medical institutions, outpatient transport to hospital, outings for elderly persons from homes and pilgrimages to Our Lady of Ta' Pinu and religious feasts. St Domenic's home for the Elderly, Nadur Day Centre, Carmelite Home, Catholic Action widows of Victoria and St Martha Centre for the Disabled were regular users of this important service. This special service is undoubtedly of immense benefit to the community in Gozo and provides the Order with very good visibility.

Day Care Ward and Assistance to Pilgrims at ta' Pinu

The Order of Malta Volunteers in Gozo presented two heavy duty wheelchairs and other ancillaries to the Ta' Pinu Sanctuary in order to assist sick and elderly pilgrims who visit the sanctuary. The presentation to Rector Fr Gerard Buhagiar was held in December 2015 after the opening of the Jubilee of Mercy Mass celebrated by the Bishop of Gozo. A special nursing bed for a day care ward was also presented with the collaboration of the Friends of the Sick and Elderly in Gozo. The OMVG is also providing transport services to pilgrims with special needs wishing to visit the Ta' Pinu Sanctuary on a twice weekly basis (Wednesdays and Saturdays)

Assisting Needy Families and Refugees

The OMVG continued to provide English language lessons to various refugees who have settled in Gozo. There are also monthly distributions of food supplies to other families in need, including a number of food hampers.

Support for the Dominican Mission in Pakistan

One of the latest hospitaller works of the Order of Malta Volunteers in Gozo is to provide support for the Dominican Mission in Pakistan. This consists of three communities, a school, an orphanage and a clinic with a dispensary. This year a monetary contribution was provided, mainly for the purchase of medicines for poor people. Sister Rachele Agius expressed her thanks to the Order of Malta. She stated that sometimes the Mission could not buy medicines due to lack of funds. There is no free National Health Service in Pakistan and many people do not have health insurance.

Relief Supplies for Ghanaian Missions

The OMVG in collaboration with the Xaghra Local Council organised a collection of good quality clothes, toys and other objects for several Ghanaian missions. Shipments of containers full of relief aid supplies from Malta and Gozo are leaving for Ghana every three months with the respective missions sharing the cost of the container shipment. Ms Manolita Farrugia coordinated the collection in Xaghra.
